Statement of Significance

By 1910, an improvement was shown on the property which was owned by Will Steele. A. G. and Elizabeth Miller bought the property in 1912. In 1932 Andrew Quist, a millworker at Washington Veneer owned the house. He was also living in the house in 1925

Description of Physical Appearance

One and one-half story front gable house with wide bracketed eaves. Wrap around front porch which extends to the west side of the property. The porch has square posts and a low railing. Paired double hung sash windows are in the front gable. Tripartite front window on the first floor on the east side. Newer adjacent garage.
